Find yourself the victim of an evil
Justify the means to reach the end
Throw yourself to crowds of all the people
Standing there to catch you as you fall
Temptation aside
Honesty and pride
Find yourself the victim of an evil
Justify the means to reach the end
Throw yourself to crowds of all the people
Standing there to catch you as you fall
Temptation aside
Honesty and pride
Virtuous in life
Angel, help me fly
Just take me out to open water
Far beneath these cries
In this moment I am weightless
Falling through the skies
It's a vision like no other
You've put before my eyes
Just take good care of all my loved ones
This is my goodbye
Fly

This is my goodbye
This is mine
Fly
