Infected and proud
There lies the proof
That you won't have seen how
Your deeds will bear their fruit
This is my last stand
And time for recompense
You will feel all that I feel
And in time, you will repent
You're under a shroud
You're a vision of lies
But you won't have seen how
The truth is in your eyes
This is my last stand
And time for recompense
You will feel all that I feel
And in time, you will repent
If you follow me
If you follow me
This is my last stand
And time for recompense
You will feel all that I feel
And in time, you will repent
Retribution
