[Hook x2]

When I speak to Shawty, she always listen
When Shawty speak to me, I'm always listening
We listen to each other, that's why were still together
forever

[Midget Verse 1]

She's the sparkle in my eye, she the stars in the sky She the candles on the table, she brings tears to my eyes
She's perfect perfection; she's heading in the right direction She's got me locked up by her love key, and her love is my only abjection
She's just one of those girls, like a kitty, she needs attention She's a playful lil thing, she just need love and affection
But I think were falling apart, but baby please don't let go You're the only girl, in the world, that—to—me—is—special

[Hook x2]

When I speak to Shawty, she always listen
When Shawty speak to me, I'm always listening
forever

[Midget Verse 2]

She's a moonlit night, a star so bright She's the tears in my eyes, my soul when I die I'll love her 'til I'm gone, knowing she was the one
She was Cinderella, and I was Prince Charming She's on fire, you can call that arson
She stole my heart, she got away with Larsen
She burn it to the ground, nothing on but the radio Who the one I made it for; she's the one I make it for Don't worry 'bout the outside, your safe with me indoors

I'm your guardian angel, you aint have to worry no more

[Hook x2]

When I speak to Shawty, she always listen

When Shawty speak to me, I'm always listening

forever
