You're looking quite sharp sugar
You've got some teeth on that stare
You've got them tattered blue jeans on
And you're doing that thing with your hair
And this bed could use a secret
And these pounding hearts could keep it
If you could
Then I could, I swear
Cause you've turned me on
I'd like to know if you were trying (Turned me on)
Angel we are so gone
And by tonight the earth bursts open
By tonight we'll shed this clothing
By tonight you'll see me in the angle that you've missed
Nothing exists but this
Nothing exists but this...
You're looking high strung sugar
Why don't you sink a little bit?
Into the sea of sweat our skin can spit
It was good to keep me guessing
Cause you know I hate attention
So can we get down to it? (Get down to it)
Get down to it...
Cause you've turned me on
I'd like to know if you were trying (Turned me on)
Angel we are so gone
And by tonight the earth bursts open
By tonight we'll shed this clothing
By tonight you'll see me in the angle that you've
missed
Nothing exists but this
Nothing exists but this... (guitar! )
Turned me on
I'd like to know if you were trying (Turned me on)
Angel we are so gone
And by tonight the earth bursts open
By tonight we'll shed this clothing
By tonight you'll see me in the angle that you've
missed
