Black days. You've changed. Oh, have you left me here
to rot?

I kid you not; I miss you, girl. You're all that makes me me true.

Your breath. Your scent follows drifting on the vapour.
I can't escape her. She was my love. Now she's pushing me away.

The night that we met. The back of the show. My favourite band.

But you wouldn't know from looking at me. All wrapped up in you,

but where can you be now and what can I do for you?

Just say "Maxim. I love you. I miss you. And no one will do but you."
