Sometimes I feel the baby nipping softly at my heel.
Reminder of how fat an scared you loved to make me feel.

A curse of such a fetching fraud without a soul to speak.

Inspired thirty songs I could have written in my sleep.
You snort a line of syphilis and run the marathon.
Your mentally deficient friends just ask you what you're on.

I may be shy and not reply to your scathing review.
But I'd rather subsist on venom than I'd stay with you.

Oh, I'll be fine.
Sever this for all time.
Laugh it off when this ends.
You can just go get high with all of your dumb friends.

I was the kind to ask what wrongdoing had injured
Dahmer's pride.
Or to excuse the junky thief with diamonds in his eyes.
But now I taste a righteous fury sparkling with hate.
Well you did hold this earth up and then fetch mommy
it's too late.
I'll bite your head off spit it out and let it plunge away.
You and all your kind won't stamp your future on today.
The beat thumbs let you sweat it out and grind on them for drugs.
You hug that pole like a firefighter falling in love.

Oh, I'll be fine.
Sever this for all time.
Laugh it off when this ends.
You can just go get high with all of your dumb friends.

I'll be fine.
Sever this for all time.
Laugh it off when this ends.
You can just go get high with all of your dumb friends.

Never another song. Never another thought.
Never another song not for you.

Never another song . Never another thought. Never another song .

Oh, I'll be fine.
Sever this for all time.
Laugh it off when this ends.
You cna just go get high with all of your dumb friends.

I'll be fine.
Sever this for all time.
Laugh it off when this ends.
You can just go get high with all of your dumb friends.
Get high with all of your dumb friends.

You were my crutch.
Now I've escaped your clutch.
How is that worm's eye view?
I have grown two broad wings and now I'm above you.
