Don't you go leaving Baby, I'll find you
Tell all your secrets
No one will want you
It's for your own good
I know what's best for you
If you won't sleep with me
There'll be no rest for you

Until the day you're broke
Until you drop and choke
I'll be your man
This much I know
Until the empire falls
Until you think it all

You gave your love to me
And now you are my property
You sold your soul
You can't retrieve the love I stole
From you
It's true
Deny with every thing you do
You're my property
You're my property

Sell you into bondage
Baby, I own you
You'll entertain all my friends
Dressed in the latest trendy frocks
You better tattoo
That I am your patriarch
It's your ambition
Soon you will fear the dark

Cause I look in your bed
Until the day you see
That you mean nothing to me
Until the day I find Someone to fall in line
Without a single sin
Without an opinion

You gave your love to me
And now you are my property

You sold your soul
You can't retrieve the love I stole
From you
It's true
Deny with every thing you do
You're my property
You're my property

"Baby, I know you've got all those crazy loft goals:
Going to art school and following your dreams and whatnot.
Blah blah blah, just throw it to the side.
You know I can support us all on my own and worst case
I'll just have to sell some drugs to my little brother's friends.
If you do have to sell your body, once or twice or seven times, it'll be worth it. And trust me, one day my band is gonna make it.
And this will all be just a distant distant dream.."

Until the earth's removed Or daddy don't approve Whatever happens first Depending on my mood

You gave your love to me
And now you are my property
From you
It's true
You're my property
You're my property
You're my property
You're my property
Haha!
