If you seek pleasure in pain
And comfort in the rain
And having an open heart
And you can't sit through a class
You're head is half up in the clouds
Half up your ass

If dark days and bright nights make your world turn
Throw a finger up
Light it up and let it burn
You may be lonely but you're not alone
If your tears come out like kidney stones

Stand up proud
We're screaming
Even if it's not out loud (Woah)
Complicate the world
We're an army of Cusack boys
And Molly Ringwald girls

When you don't speak words
You exhale them
Keep them locked inside
You fail them
Old habits die hard
But there corpses always stay to haunt you

When starlight
Burns bright
In the black sky
We'll be driving out
Screaming towards the overpass

Rocking in
Rocking out
To the radio
Roll your windows down
Bump that Manilow

Stand up proud
We're screaming
Even if it's not out loud (Woah)

Complicate the world
We're an army of Cusack boys
And Molly Ringwald girls

In every school
In every home
There is another sap like you
We're in the park
Looking up at the stars with nothing else to do
One day you'll meet another one
And you'll be kicked out of our club
We never win in love

And we are the one
Who never see why growing up has got to be like war
It's touchy feely but it's true
There's a loser in the same position
Standing next to you

Starlight burns bright in the black sky
We do what we want. (x3)
