The Majestic creation of Lucifer
Centuries have passed since your creation
Have been blasphemous and powerful
The heavens have sheltered you
From the day of your rebellion

Govern the evil forces
You were given Ancestors powers
You were the chosen of Satan
Have no mercy on those who fear you
Rots their hearts, burn their souls in the bonfire

Divine creation has come for his revenge
I cry for your blood Lucifer
Death to those who fear you
And eternal life to those who follow you

Thousands of years have passed
And I feel your evil power
Your voice like thunder, makes me look past
Desolate and darkness

I look north and see the greatness
Of his frozen kingdom
Demons as guardians govern the frozen time

Divine creation has come for his revenge
I cry for your blood Lucifer
Death to those who fear you
And eternal life to those who follow you
