"Recall These Days"

All I can see are fading colours,
All I can find are broken shapes,
Where one moment is a lifetime,
Nowhere can I run,
Nowhere can I hide,
Only finding space in my inner emptiness,
I recall these days,
Heaven was crying my tears,
Heaven was crying my tears,
Black pearls were falling,
Drowning my tormented world inside,
Heaven was crying...

All I can see are fading colours,
All I can find are broken shapes,
Where one moment is a lifetime,

Nowhere can I run,
Nowhere can I hide,
Only finding space in my inner loneliness,
All I can feel are frozen movements,
(There won... t be any ground left for me),
And steps too far without return,
I recall these days,
Heaven was crying my tears,
Heaven was crying my tears,
Black pearls were falling,
Drowning my tormented world inside,
Heaven was crying...
Heaven was crying...
