"Second Skin"

Today she wears her second skin,
She dresses so unkind,
She won... t never let me in again,
Her new world just fits right,
And I feel I can... t hold on,
Believing hearts gone blind,
And I can... t control my thoughts,
Which are burning from the inside,
Burn me to ashes from the inside
I try to sway, and I try to sway,
Because,
Time is right now, to cut these strings away,
You have planted, quit the whispers in my ears,
Time is right now, to get rid of this second skin,
How could I find sleep,

With this painted girl, crying on the wall,
Reflecting worn-out memories,
But haunts me after all,
And I feel I can... t hold on,
Believing hearts gone blind,
And I can... t control my thoughts,
Which are burning from the inside,
Burn me to ashes from the inside,
Time is right now, to cut these strings away,
You have planted, quit the whispers in my ears,
Time is right now, to get rid of this second skin,
Get rid of this second skin, get rid of this second skin,
