Yeah!
I'm out for blood!
So bring your guns and saddle up,
This towns not big enough,
Enough for the both of us
Oh yeah? yeah!
Standing toe to toe until there's nothing.
Nothing left.

I thought of breaking down, then I started waking up.
(Whoa, whoa)
Thought a truce could settle this storm,
A fair trade when wanting so much more
(The battle for the blood of the innocent)
Yeah! (whoa whoa) battle for the blood!
I thought of breaking down then I started waking up
(The battle for the blood)

So
Pull your chains now
So pull your chains now
Yeah the ones that hold you down

I'm out for blood!
So bring your guns and saddle up,
This town's not big enough,
Enough for the both of us
Oh yeah? yeah!
Standing toe to toe until there's nothing.
Nothing left
