Hang 'em up!
They're gonna hang you high,
Cut you down, give you a second chance
They will cut you down

Oh, if you're prepared at all,
You'll be in a world of hurt
Pray someday you'll have the sidewalk to my back
Oh, if you're prepared at all,
You'll be in a world of hurt

I'm headed out west. Win it back, to win it back
Yeah, I'm heading out west
But it will never be the same

Well, even if we need to be
The ones to bring you
Side by side we'll ride into the sun
We devastate as we go and I thought
That I'd let you know
Side by side is how we ride as one

Back to back, then we'll draw
The sounds of shots in the air, first man to fall
So stop the clock So stop the clock
Oh god bring'em all home
Oh yeah, bring it all bring it all home

[2x]
We'll say goodbye now. You will never get a reason
To the west we are a leaving till we go down

Oh god you can't be serious
This is going nowhere. This has to stop
This is the train of nightmares
You better buckle up
So say your prayers and say goodnight goodnight
We're gonna bring 'em all home

Well, even if we need to be
The ones to bring you

Side by side we'll ride into the sun
We devastate as we go and I thought
That I'd let you know
Side by side is how we ride as one

(We devastate as we go and I thought
That I'd let you know
Side by side is how we ride as one)
