This life I lead I don't expect you to understand
Night after night under the same lights
Just the road and the band
So I try. And I wait
Something's got to give and something has got to break

I'm closing in on the footsteps outside almost in

I'm closing in on the footsteps outside almost in

Some ask why, some ask how Truth is all I know, it's making sense to me and mine
That it's time to hit the road
So I try. And I wait
Something's got to give and something has got to

I'm closing in on the footsteps outside almost in

I'm closing in on the footsteps outside almost in

So I try. And I wait
So I try. And I wait...

I'm closing in on the footsteps outside almost in

I'm closing in on the footsteps outside almost in
