[Intro - Pharrell]

Hah, hah, hah, hah

Hah, hah, oh Lord, hah, hah

[Verse 1 - Bow Wow]

Young and confused, with nothin to lose

But somethin' to prove, my hunger my views

I use them as tools, to refuse for the sake of rebellin'

Breakin the rules and yellin', tellin them to come and walk in my shoes

Come and try it, be defiant, we pump the heart of a lion

See if you like it, you livin yo life culturally bias

Cause the ghettos got a bad rep, and we got a bad rap

So we get a half step, in the door, get the last laugh,

hah

No future no past, we live for the right now

Want us to pipe down, but this is what life sounds

Like when thugs cry, and I seen love die

And I've seen the hater born, and pawn as they take on form

As they take on, the world is placed on our shoulder

But socially, they never know what's up

They approach us with they pre-concieved notions

At least that's what the homies told me

[Chorus - Bow Wow]

The celebration, the movement

Man we young and confused, but to ambitious to lose it

You see we loving life

Since we was just critters, they said that we'd be go
gettas

This is the movement

Man we young and confused, but to ambitious to lose it

You see we loving life

Since we was just critters, they said that we'd be go
gettas

[Verse 2 - Bow Wow]

Like the war thing, I don't know what y'all seen

But my generation is gettin caught in the cross beams

No preparation, medication, and vacines

No reparation for the children who ask things
But get no answers, they just say pull your pants up
They don't understand us, but still reprimand us Demand us to live this, and that and that and this
And it has us pissed, and after this I'll probably be band, but I gotta take a stand Cause you see what happened when +Eminem+ ignored +Stan+
He just lost it be cautious, see we all targets
My thoughts are sporadic, I feel so asthmatic
Out of breath, sick of talkin, so we takin action Against a democracy, full of hypocrisy
I know it's more than me, and my hip hop eyes that see That's what the homie said to me

[Chorus]

[Verse 3 - Pharrell]

In the world that has so much goin' on, could leave you paranoid
Like now there's poppin noise, please don't just think it's project boys
Whether your urban life, or your suburban knights
It doesn't matter, what matters is if your swerving right
Don't get it twisted, a lot happens in suburban nights Cause dead is dead, whether in your room or a club at night
But the Lords been shinin' on ya, he said "I'm there to calm ya"
He said "I'll be back", the words like Sara Connors
She said we sleepin on her, wake up and leanin on her
We terminated for playin, terminator by your honor
We don't wanna die
We just wanna fly (Haha, HO!)

[Bow Wow]

Have you felt like, you just wanna get away man
It's the movement
I don't think yall heard me
It's the movement man

[Chorus]

[Outro - Bow Wow]

Hey, that's what the homie told me
