Verse 1

Change my focus, visions of a brighter future
When all seems hopeless, choose to make a new maneuver
Time to improve the person, who I'm getting used ta,
Use to be a drug abuser
Be a user, felt like a loser,
But who's to say, I moved away from the former self and into the new,
I stay searching, but never know what happiness is lurking,
Working towards my goal, walk from the path, I'm swerving
Mind changing like seasons,
My mind chasing a reason, to continue down this path
When half me wants to be leaving, and make a change
Repeating the same things day after day,
The way I'm seeing this world through the eyes
I'm exhausted; get above all the negative thoughts
I'm tryna get my shit sorted
And so I'm searching deep inside of my heart,
Take in pride of the art of writing trying to ignite a spark.

Chorus

Changing my ways, came to re-arrange it (repeat 3 times)
What I really want has been ignored

Verse 2

Changing my focus, time to make new goals,
Strangely devoted to jumping through the loop holes,
Majorly bloated because I grew my soul,
Those of you, take hold no more cruise control,
Blues unfold and a wind gust picks me up,
And I'm up for the positive transitions I got,
Beautiful visions I'll miss in the past,
And then maybe collisions when my path enters the dark,
The centre of my heart needs to reveal and feel that same path,

Cold as still, I roll with the real serrated edge sharp,
Hold the meal it didn't appeal past the cask,
I was stuck drinking in the park,
Searching for the leaf, relief
And the brand new start,
It's hard but it's far from impossible,
Evolving, moulding myself to become unstoppable

Chorus

Verse 3

Change my focus, stop and pull my socks up,
Think of this life that I've got sucks, coz I haven't got much,
I'm part of the main frame but feel like an odd cut,
When life seems hard search for the soft touch,
It's not enough, just make it do,
I made it through the first 28 years always facing new hurdles,
Sometimes I feel I run around in circles,
Get myself back on track,
Out of this mental world, rewind change in gears,
Well let my conscience steer, my every thought
There was a future and ignore my fears
I try and stay focused, as each day approaches,
Coz everything's changing, that's a thing I've noticed,
Through these eyes of frustration,
The situation, these things are changing straining my brain,
I'll need replacement, and I'm looking deep inside of my mind,
Taking time with the art of writing, trying to recite this rhyme.

What I really want has been ignored (times 2)

Chorus

What I really want has been ignored (times 4)

Got up, changed myself,
I got up, changed my life,
Wanna change my thoughts,
Wanna change my sites,
I can't change the world,
I can't change the past,
But I can change my future,
Just don't know where to start (times 2)

Changing my ways came to re-arrange it (repeat till end)
