This ones going out to you mum,
I really miss you.
I no you can hear me.
This is for you.

I no your looking down. Are you proud of me?
or are you upset i dont spend time with the family?
or do you understand the way ive be come?
There's so meny thing i wish i could say to you mum.
I was seventeen years young when you passed away, I found it hard after you and dad devorived to find my way.
I cried away the pain, althougth i didnt complain.
Caught in the middle of family seperation, Was stress on my brain, depresstion came, I dont no how I coped.
Hit the pipe all my dreams are up in a cloud of smoke they didnt help it got me more comfused then i went to stay with dad when you moved and you were crushed when i saw you in caught after that letter i wrote, then one i reget that i wrote. felt like you lost your son felt like i lost my mum that was enuff and there was worse to come

(x2)
you no i miss you mum
i really miss you
now your gone

i never felt so close to eny body as i did with you and now that im older i understand why people do the things they do that i was lacking life experince around '89 shit got serious
Started with some lumps next thing i hear is Chumers, and evrery thing the doctors trys was useless Radio Treipi, Kemo Threaip 4th of july '91 down at the cemetry knowing that this day would eventually come i hope you no what you ment to me mum you were the one who said experince the world and do what you wanna do. so i hope your really proud of this man standing in front of you i no your watching me and i can feel you at times your still in my dreams and your still in my mind its been fithteen years since you left me behind and i wish you were here now siping this wine (i miss you)

(x2)
you no i miss you mum
i really miss you
now your gone

when i look back i didnt even no you at all i was still growing up and just a little confused boy who never said good bye when you left last time i saw you nan told me not to talk about death and the day you past away i was the last one called how funnys that you were therer when i first did graff and you were my insperation to get out and rack
