(Mr. Man verse)

S.O.S.

breaker breaker 1-9 maydey surviving off of pennies until my next payday all I ever wanted was a real nice lady a clean pair of socks and some fish for my gravy but all I get is rice which will have to suffice coz I always used to think I didn't need no advice so I never ever really tried to heed no advice but in the end we all pay the price so let's get to the point (point point) of the whole situation
so many obstacles
so many confrontations but still I'm focused on reaching every station coz destiny is my destination I came to make it happen instead of wasting time I don't got the time is now coz I only got one shot navigating through the schemes and the intricate plots coz you and I is all we got lets make it happen

(Lee Majors verse)

why
why is the world round why do the suckas bite why do the freaks come out at night why they paint Jesus white I sit and wonder why

we breakin hip hop laws doing videos in houses that we know aint yours representing projects man them shits aint yours (check your lease) what I release I'll make you shit in your draws

Well then hear what I say (OK) your begin for an easy way well I don't know (well I dont know) oh yes I don't know

Yo light
let me let these niggas know its like all I ever wanted was a girl with respect and a 3rd eye DKNY aint what makes you fly lights in my face government in my pocket its hard to be a prophet and still make a profit

(Mos Def)
I swing with phat cats to smack tracks over phat raps it's all of that we tread the BK back road (brooklyn)
'96 about to put it on hey baby palm put a quarter upon the needle head to hold it still while I lace up the verbal threat now watch me sew shit up mos def in your spot about to blow shit up see i've been rhyiming since when I was growing up that's why I say that shit that make the party open up like the sky
plus my voice is fly
I roll with dave mase
and wonder why
I rock it from Medina green on to the strong i-i land on my feet coz im a cool cat make the kids around my way say how you do that be careful what you say coz aint no takebacks and if you makin' moves don't fake jacks

perhaps that's the sound when you smack the drum skin whenever yall want to jump in man I don't want the landlord kicking my door in you tired of getting high but you never know when and fuck around and get low again but you can always be certain my friend how your low tide is always gonna come in it's like that so check it on out yall

(It's like right about now you're probably sitting on your couch thinking, damn what is son doing.
I dont understand you try to front but its like you cant son its music
you gotta appreciate music take a listen
yeah, yall dont understand before you a mc
you a artist
you make music
so make that music listen to this, yeah, I feel it I see your heads..)
