I can not explain it
But I'm sure gonna try
I can see my forever
Somewhere in your eyes
And you're givin me a treasure
No one could ever steal
Everyday a new motion
No one else can feel

Heaven must be happy that we found
Each other again
There can be no other that Understands the message I send

From the middle of me
To the middle of you
All that I believe
Everything I do
Out of my body and mind
Til the end of time
I keep givin from the middle of me
To the middle of you

I know we've been before girl
In a different disguise

Oh - You've been my destiny
For a thousand lives

We're havin conversations
Without a single word ever said
You're the only one that can hear
The message that I am sendin...

You get me high on energy...
A molecular cofenction
Of cosmic chemistry
We don't flesh and bone
Let my soul tell
You what you need to know...

From the middle of me
To the middle of you
All that I believe
Everything I do
Out of my body and mind
Til the end of time
I keep givin from the middle of me
To the middle of you
