All systems operational

I'm so alive

Everything is 5 x 5

Got me feeling like there's no gravity trying to look at the space between you and me boy just trying to get into your world

I need your smile to bring me safely back to earth cause when you touch me, boy I'm in another universe

I just wanna stay here 'til the end of time

No matter where you are baby your love is a guiding star

switch into overdrive

'Cause everything is 5 x 5

All systems operational

just give the word

I'll give you lovin' unconditional

don't you know you're my life support

I'm so alive

now everything is 5 x 5

Celebration when we're standing face to face

A calculation as my heart beats into hyperspace

I wanna stay here til the end of time

No matter where we are baby you'll shine like the brightest star

switch into overdrive

- everything is 5 x 5

All systems operational

just give the word

I'll give you lovin' unconditional

don't you know you're my life support

I'm so alive

Everything is 5 x 5

No matter where you are

baby your love is a guiding star

switch into overdrive

- everything is 5 x 5

All systems operational

just give the word

I'll give you lovin' unconditional

don't you know you're my life support

I'm so alive

- everything is 5 x 5

All systems operational (all)

just give the word (give the word)

I'll give you lovin' unconditional (unconditional)

don't you know you're my life support (you're my life support)

I'm so alive

now everything is 5 x 5 (everything is 5 x 5)

All systems operational

just give the word

I'll give you lovin' unconditional

don't you know you're my life support

I'm so alive
