I should have known about,
the things I now.
I was too blind to see,
the things you were doing to me.
How dare you ask me why,
there's no more you and I.
If you really wanna know,
here we go...

[bridge:]

Number 1,
how come we were never having fun?

Number 2,
why do you always have that attitude?

Number 3,
can we blame it on your jealousy?

Number 4
no more, why can't you see?

[chorus:]

If you think I'll take you back
your in for a surprise
You'll never be the one for me.

Second time around I know
you gotta pay the price
you got to be, your not to be.
If you think I'll let you play
this game not once, but twice
there will be no more miss nice.

[Verse 2:]

My heart's on lock down
so don't you come around.
Cause I'll unplug the phone,
I'm better off alone.

Do you remember when *you can be my hottie hottie*
but that was back then,
no longer your girlfriend.

[bridge:]

Number 1,
how come we were never having fun?

Number 2,
why do you always have that attitude?

Number 3,
can we blame it on your jealousy?

Number 4
no more, why can't you see?

[chorus:]

If you think I'll take you back

your in for a surprise

You'll never be the one for me.

Second time around I know

you gotta pay the price

you got to be, your not to be.

If you think I'll let you play

this game not once, but twice

there will be no more miss nice.

I should've know about,

the things i know now.

How dare you ask my why?

there's no more you and I.

eeh yeah

To be or not to be

I've thrown away the key.

Baby it's plain to see

no more miss nice.

Cause you will never be

the only one for me.

Baby it's plain to see

no more miss nice.

[chorus:]

If you think I'll take you back

your in for a surprise

You'll never be the one for me.

Second time around I know
you gotta pay the price
you got to be, your not to be.
If you think I'll let you play
this game not once, but twice
there will be no more miss nice.
Pay the price
Once or Twice
No miss nice
