Every day that I rise I give thanks and praise for life
Every day that I rise I give thanks and praise
Thank Jah for life, thank Jah for love, thank Jah for everything
Thank Jah for life, thank Jah for love, thank Jah for everything
For I sing thanks and praises
So I give thanks and praises

'Cause the prophecy, the prophecy, the prophecy
It's all around me
The prophecy, the prophecy, the prophecy
It's all around me

Take a look inside
Are you filled with pride?
Let Jah be your guide
Let Jah be your life

The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof
The world and those that dwell therein
And we were all born in sin
But we must let him in
'Cause it no matter the colour of your skin
We were all born in sin
It no matter the colour of your skin
We were all born in sin

But the prophecy, the prophecy, the prophecy
It's all we can see
The prophecy, the prophecy, the prophecy
It's all around me

We see the words of the Bible fulfilled
We know we see the Father's will
And all the things that he prophesied
Now revealed to the human eyes
Praise of Rastafari, praise of Selassie I
Abashanti I, Bongo Bingi I, Jah Rastafari
One man can open the Book of the Seven Seals

But the prophecy, the prophecy, the prophecy
Revelation you can see
The prophecy, the prophecy, the prophecy
It's all around me

Every day that I rise I give thanks and praise
In my humble ways
Every day that I rise I give thanks and praise
In my humble ways
'Cause Jah Jah is the King of kings, the Lord of lords
Conquering Lion of the Tribe of Judah
So I thank you for life, Lord
So I thank you for my life, God

Every day that I rise I give thanks and praise
In my humble ways
Thank Jah Jah for my nights, thank him for my days

Scriptures can reveal
You can't care, you must haffi feel
Scriptures can reveal
He should open the Book of the Seven Seals
Scriptures can reveal
Jah Jah open the Book of the Seven Seals
Scriptures can reveal
Yeah, Revelation says so
Scriptures can reveal
