So many years, you felt your life was not your own
So many nights lying awake, you'd hear yourself saying
But all this time, I've lived my life without even trying
And all along, I knew my heart, I knew my eyes weren't lying

But all I want is for you to feel like you're alive
(All I want)
All I want is to see some fire in your eyes

So many times, yeah, the sound of the street would call to you
So many ways I know that you could make your dreams come true

But all you want is to find a world that's not your own
And all you see
(All you see)
Is an outside chance to stand alone for what this is all about

Can you see?
Well, you run so fast, you'll burn your heart away
Now and then, you'll have to see
That it's only you, it's only me

So many years, well you felt that your life was not your own
So many nights lying awake, you'd hear yourself
saying
But all this time, I've lived my life without even trying
And all along, you knew your heart, you knew your eyes weren't lying

But all you want is to find a world that's not your own
All you see
(All you see)
Is an outside chance to stand alone for what this is all about

Can you see?

Well, you run so fast, you'll burn your heart away
That it's only you, it's only me

Yes it's only you, it's only me
Oh, it's only you, it's only me (All I want, all I want)
All I want
(All I want)
All I want
(All I want)
All I want
