Dialling Tone

I can't help it, I miss you What am I supposed to do?
I wanna phone you when I get home drunk maybe I should become a monk If your boyfriend picks up the phone, I'm gonna hang up and then I'll groan I know I really ought to leave you alone but I'm addicted to that dialling tone

I'm not married and you're not divorced and it's not that simple of course but your boyfriend seems so dull he was probably born in Hull Meanwhile I'm available I'm ready, willing, and I'm able I even run my own record label so come and sit at my table

Yeah I know I'm your bit on the side
but I hope one day you'll be all mine

I don't wanna make a habit of this but your lips are hard to resist I bet they would be nice to kiss an opportunity not to be missed Your boyfriend is a jerk and your relationship doesn't work so dump him and go out with me how much plainer can I be?

Yeah I know I'm your bit on the side
but I hope one day you'll be all mine
but i hope one day you'll be all mine
but i hope one day you'll be all mine
