Mountains never lie,
Mountains never cry,
So strong deep inside
And no one can touch.

They stand for long,
Many centuries and years
Experience in life's
That no one have.
If you want to know
And find the truth
Just go inside
Deep inside of mountains hart.

They stand for long,
Many centuries and years,
So strong deep inside
And no one can touch.
They stand for long,
Many centuries and years
Experience and life's
That no one have.
If you want to know
And find the truth
Just go inside
Deep inside of mountains hart.
