Why life is so mean
And make tragedies
Take the people
That we love...

She was so clean
Inspire me in everything
I can't believe that she's gone.
I can't hold my tears
My heart is broken wheel
I can't believe that she is gone.

Oh Soraya, your gone and my heart is broke
I just can't believe it that you are not
Here with us no more...

Oh Soraya, my heart is broken stone
I know you are up there and I hope
You listen this song, I am singing
For you because my heart can't take it
No more.
I just can't believe it that you are not
Here with us no more...
