I travel beside on an empty land
It seems so quiet and polite
There is no one here
It's just empty and free
Can I just live right here?
So you gonna hit me
Because I find my place
So you gonna hit me
Because I am free again.

I travel beside on a river side
And rise up my hands
To feel free again
The wind is so quite and
The sun is so clean well I feel
Freedom and peace.

So you gonna hit me
Because I rise up my hands
So you gonna hit me
Because I am free again.

The time is changing
The people growing
The kids remain so quite.
So don't be angry
And don't feel scared
The time is gonna change
