"Thrilled To Pieces"

Let's watch the day go by, sit with me here in the shade
Stay with me until the laughter dies
There's only reflective light and there's only a little Light left
Before sits there reminding me, where I've been and yet
I'm thrilled to pieces to be with you
Please don't go this moment will not wait
Please don't go let's have one more look around Let's kiss the day good bye, come sit with me for awhile
Sit with me until the changing tide
Watch the tables turn
I'm thrilled to pieces to be with you
I'm thrilled to pieces to be here
I'm thrilled to pieces
I'm thrilled to pieces to be with you
I'm thrilled to pieces to be here
I'm thrilled to pieces
Tomorrow is my favorite day, although it's not here yet
Hope lies a stones through away
I'm thrilled to pieces to leave here
