Living for the night
There's a power that excites
So possessed by you
Hiding from the day
You were showing me the way
There was something new

Chorus
Then you cried out to the moon
Don't you come back to my room

Just go away
You are the fire
I am so afraid
Can't you tell me why

Dark reality
An somehow you call on me
Are you fantasized
Got no other choices
'Cause I know the voices
Can't be exorcised

Chorus

I once had a dream
And I thought that I would scream
And then there you were
I know it's a lie
I see it in your eyes
How can I be sure
