(Scarface)

It's gon' be some shit you might not understand but you might have to rewind this shit a few times.....heavy... heavy check it put
I know tomorrow ain't a promise that's why I live one day at a time So when its' my turn they'll be no crying I'm aware that when my number called I'm punching the clock No need for screaming at me mama I'm outti Plus I really wasn't happy here to start wit let that be told My own homeboy was robbin me and that's three cold I said three it all intentional cause two don't count When your own blood is bitter and your homeboys bounce Who the fuck is you gone trust when your roaddawg is scheming and every orther corner you passing a different demon and now the closet open and I'm remembering this yo family ya backbone and yo friends ain't shit Now I'm believeing what Rhonda was saying back in the day
When the homeboys left she the only one stay
And for that very reason I'ma try and give her the world
I found heaven in the form of a girl Everybody say

(Kelly Price singing)

My Angel my sunshine bless the day that I found heaven in the form of a girl My best friend my good time bless the day that I found heaven in the form of a girl

(Scarface)

Listening to different scriptures, they teach on God and if you ain't never met him, don't speak on God I'm serious about religion, this just ain't no song hearing niggas make up scriptures and playing along probably saying I'm a hypocrite for judging these folks but you can tell he ain't a christian by the way that he spoke I pray for everybody hoping that they hear that voice the one that paralyzies you from head down boy where you aware of your surroundings yet you still can't move water shooting out of your eyes when you hear this dude and the voice is much louder than the voice you thought was the voice of the holy spirit you'll change your life when you hear it and the next morning you wake up and the world will look lighter the grass greener and the sun brighter I know the feeling firsthand, I've witnessed the sight when I allowed the lord to come in my life and it was like heaven but I'm a man and I ain't perfect that's a poor excuse that ain't working I ask him forgiveness for every sin I committ hoping he gone let me stay on his list I'm trying to get to Heaven (repeat&fade;) America the beautiful don't be so cold how you expecting our seeds gone grow when you trap us in the ghetto and show love to the other mothafuckas while we right here starving at home I'd cry if I thought me shedding a tear might help then again me shedding tears don't help wanna call up to the president just to see if he know help let him know you up shit creek yourself we all sinners

facing a winter
wit no socks and no shoes in a position where we all gone lose instead a penitentaries we gone need more schools now what the fuck is we gone do sit around and let the world pass us by waiting on the message from the reverend and he ain't but another man trying to get to Heaven(repeat&fade;)
