"Doom On Ice"

A cold winter has it's charm...
The winter breeze... Your bones will freeze
The sky is open... No clouds in sight...
This is a warning -You'd better hide!

Doom on ice... You'll freeze to death...

The horizon is far away...
You can't reach it... You're here to stay
You want to lay down and let it go...
You're feeling warmer said the jack frost...

Doom on ice... You'll freeze to death...

Wake up! There is a light!
You're found... But next time...
There's no luck next time, YEAH!
