Hitman cut it out
I think you've had enough
With no sleep no alarms
It cuts deep break it off now
So hitman cut it out
And lay down all the hurt
Ever tried to feel this way
Hitman take it all don't move away
So far away
Hitman no offense
But somethings never change
Ever tried to feel this way
Hitman take it all don't move away...

Hitman take it down
End up what you start
Hitman take it all

There's lives at stake around

Hitman cut it out
I think you call the shits
It's time to spell it out
(But I won't start your fire)
And end up what you start
(So please just break it off)
Ever tried to feel this way
Hitman take it all don't move away

Hitman take it down
End up what you start
Hitman take it all
All you love to hold
Hitman take it now
There's lives at stake around
