"Miles Ahead"

Just like a farewell start
Without anymore doubt I'm taking off
I'll take slower pace
And try to win the race from here my friend
You understand
There's history in this place
Some beauty, some erased and something sweet
I do agree
With everything you say
But the ocean has it's way upon the waves
They wash away

There is history in this place
Someone going, someone stays
But leaving it all behind
Miles ahead I find
There's something distant deep inside that smile
Taking you far from here

Well distance takes a while
If you just take it halfway everytime
You won't arrive
You won't arrive at all
You'll drift along in time

There is history in this place
Someone going, someone stays
But leaving it all behind
Miles ahead I find
There's something distant deep inside that smile
Taking it far from here

Wash away, like a wave
Are you up for it to drift along today
Drift away and make it home
There's a wave, deeper shade
Are you with me on this hope to slide away
Slide away and make it home

Just like a farewell start
Without anymore doubt I'm taking off
