I can hear your yearnings, your anguished cries
Let the nourishment pass you by
As it leaves you without, without a trace
It leaves you without the scars

It's a day of the ruins
The time of your relief
It's a day of the judgments
The day of your beliefs

Bitter is the end, the end of your cry
Let your nourishment pass you by
It'll leave you without, without your faith
It'll leave you without your grace

It's a day of the ruins
The time of your relief
It's a day of the judgments
The day of your release

It's a day of the ruins
The time of your relief
It's a day of the judgments
The day of your release

It's a day of the ruins
The time of your relief
It's a day of the judgments
The day of your release

It's a day of the ruins
The time of your relief
It's a day of the judgments
