"First Doom"

Mountains of North shall erupt
And flames of dark land will rise

Hail to one who hails
Blood for one who bleeds
Blood to one who hails
Hail for one who bleeds

O, you mistress of northland
Queen of dark land
I may wash my hands of
The evil master's blood

That is no man's doom
Which I bring
That is child's doom
And it shall be the first doom

Mountains of North shall erupt
And flames of dark land will rise

Blood for one who bleeds
Blood to one who hails
Hail for one who bleeds
