Verse:

Make it a lie and I will get by
Hanging on strings that don't exist
I'm caring too much thinking to little
Get by with a touch get caught in the middle

Chorus:

It's what happens
When my heart wins
And everything seems so perfect
And I want it
But I'm falling
And I do not want to die
Instead I want to fall into
Fall into your arms

Verse:

Create a home in mortals I know
They are harboring lies but it's how I get by
If you can't deliver the love that I need
I'll find another lover to consume me

Bridge:

It's all wrong and I know it
I should blow up start over
It breaks down my senses
I do not want this
