You could be so overjoyed
You're so young, you're just a boy
With so much to give
It's too late to worry
And too soon to cry
I could give you several reasons
To make you want to live

I'll meet everyone
I'll meet everyone
Everyone in heaven

All the suits and ties and uniforms
You wear the clothing they assign you though it's not
Your style
And if you sit down, you will not stand up
Cause they have a way to take away your foolish mind

I'll meet everyone
I'll meet everyone
Everyone in heaven

Heaven, no

Wait for the camera from the wayne county weekly (?)
Being brave means being yourself, not the boy that you
Dream about
Seek and you shall find
Just think about the friends you leave behind
