"Out To Play"

I can't say I'm sorry yet
I'm just a dull, romantic man I guess
It's a death defying drama day
And I get nervous when you're out to play

When you're out, when you're out to play
When you're out, when you're out to play

Heroine, that's what you are
I'm going down for the third time
Pleased to have a pleasant stay, well okay
But I get nervous when you're out to play

When you're out, when you're out to play
When you're out...

Tumbleweed, you are my thrill
Will you ever stand still?
It's three years later and nothing's changed
And I get nervous when you're out to play

When you're out, when you're out to play
When you're out, when you're out to play
When you're out, when you're out to play
