Well you called the shots for the last time
Cause why won't you say I will leave
When you put the red line

Across us, giving us a faith full of filth
And now I can't breathe,

Win now?
How can I win now?
Cause this is your war
And I am outnumbered, SOS
Win now?
How can I win now?
Cause this is our war
And I've an X on my back

Close your eyes
Counting to ten
Could this make it easier
Twist the knife but guess I'm not you
What I need to be what I stand
In front of you broken
Now because you can't be wrong and I'm not
I can't wake up from this
I can't back down from this
But you will see
Give it us you love your mouth
Can't take away all of the mad thoughts that built up in me

Well you called my bluff, for the last time
Cause no I won't let you get away with that shit
Your lies have cut us and severed all the ties we bound
This is ending now

Win now?
How can I win now?
Cause this is your war
And I am outnumbered, SOS
Win now?
How can I win now?

Cause this is our war
I'm blindfolded I can't fight back

Close your eyes
Counting to ten
Could this make it easier
Twist the knife, guess I'm not you
What I need to be what I stand
In front of you broken
Now because you can't be wrong and I'm not
I can't wake up from this
I can't back down from this
But you will see
Give it us you love your mouth
Can't take away all of the mad thoughts that built up in
me

Over and out
How can I win
Over and out
How can I win now
Cause this is our war, cause this is our war
Over and out
How can I win
Over and out
How can I win now

So hide your finger, I know you will Cause it's easier, easier
It's so easy to, to blame me
So hide your finger, I know you will Cause this is my war

Close your eyes
Counting to ten
Could this make it easier
Twist the knife but guess I'm not you
I am me to be what I stand
In front of you broken
Now because you can't be wrong and I know
I can't wake up from this
I can't back down from this
But you will see
Give it us you love your mouth
Can't take away all of the mad thoughts that built up in
me
