

Misery Speaks

"Lay This Burden Down"

Visit "Lay This Burden Down" on MotoLyrics.com

A spiritual heart to make my night

Figured with grace to make my day

Figured with pain:

Don't lay this burden down, honestly to the ground

Never to return, to take your "idols" burn

Hold the balance of fate in your hands

Possessed by the spear of destiny

Read my last rites:

I am sacrificed

Read my last rites:

Â„The drones have to die"

That's what my destiny stands for as this burden remains

A second in hell is a lifetime as the balance maintaine

Whatever killed the son of...

Will give breath to be?

Not one of you, and don't believe

Ordained? Ordained!
