drowning under the pouring rain the water level has reached my face standing far away from the drain i watch u crying from such distance well,u just wrote the ending of wat's gonna happen in real my body's lost strength in something i lift myself above n nw i feel (chorus)

hold ur breath n breathe inside come n get me i m out of sight suffocating n satisfied i find my fate in d blue moon light intoxicating now n den

i m healing all my pain hurting myself in the fight i m finding the blue moon light lying in the crosswords line i knw dat u r not feeling fine u never felt like dis before nw u r crying on the shore listen to me don't leave me again ur love is still running thru my vein hold onto me n say u r mine forever the day will cum again n we will be together

come n get me i m out of sight
suffocating n satisfied
i find my fate in the blue moon light

intoxicating now n den
i have found the blue moon light
