Money is honey, where can my honey be?
Money is honey, where can my honey be?
If I had my money, my honey sho' would be with me

When I woke up this mornin', told my daddy I was through
Said 'Get yourself some greebacks daddy and I'll come back to you'
My money is honey, where can my honey be?
If I had my money, my honey sho' would be with me

Buy yourself those sweepstakes tickets and if your horses win
I'll tear the door down daddy just to let you come back in
My money is honey, where can my honey be?
If I had my money, my honey sho' would be with me

I try to be particular about my kind of man
But it won't make no difference if his money's in his hand
My money is honey, where can my honey be?
If I had my money, my honey sho' would be with me

His age won't be important, he can be real young or old Just long's he has some pockets, where I can dig my gold
My money is honey, where can my honey be?
If I had my money, my honey sho' would be with me

(piano solo)

Money is honey, where can my honey be?
Money is honey, where can my honey be?
If I had my money, my honey sho' would be with me

Talk about your thrills and chills from now on until The thrills will change to chills unless you show some dollar bills
My money is honey, where can my honey be?
If I had my money, my honey sho' would be with me
