Close your eyes, don't turn around
I won't harm you (I won't harm you)

Not a borne disease, not an enemy
I won't harm you (I won't harm you)

Tell me things, tell me everything
I like you (I like you)

So turn around, open your eyes
I won't harm you (I won't harm you)

Touch, you can touch, not too much, just enough
I'm in love with a myth of who made you

Cut, you can cut, you can show me your blood
Let me taste it to see who made you

So strung up, so strung up, yeah you're gonna get stuck
There's gonna be no one to save you

So, you think I could ever hurt you now?
No, you think I could ever hurt you, how?
Now, I'm gonna hold you close
Now, I'm gonna love you the most

Touch, you can touch, not too much, just enough
I'm in love with a myth of who made you

Cut, you can cut, you can show me your blood
Let me taste it to see who made you

So, you think I could ever hurt you now?
No, you think I could ever hurt you, how?
Now, I'm gonna hold you close
Now, I'm gonna love you the most
