He's a lean and hungry hunter
Standing in the cold street corner light
There in the night
She's a lonely little dancer
Out to find a daring new romance
The girl takes a chance

CHORUS:

They're hunters of the night
Find their love where they might
We're all hunters of the night

She can see her lonely stranger
Standing in the cold street corner light
There in the night
She can feel his arms surround her
Wanting this embrace to never end
Still once again

CHORUS

He's a lean and hungry hunter
Standing in the cold street corner light
There in the night
She can feel his arms surround her
Wanting this embrace to never end
Still once again
