All my feelings run away
Leaving mind to be insane
As the words deceive the lovers
So it's time for me to show her
That I got to keep me rollin' away from here

Fear the effects of my choice
Even if it's running under my joys
With these roses in old tracks
I have guns to kill the gloominess
And a hot drink to eventually dry my tears

And it's time for me to see the light
It's time for me to have a good time
And it's time for me to see the light
It's time for me to say you good bye

Move my fingers on the strings
To pass my time I got only this means
We could try it in the ham land
Tryin' not to see your old friends
But I guess it would be the same heated up soup

And it's time for me to see the light
It's time for me to have a good time
And it's time for me to see the light
It's time for me to say you good bye

And it's time for me to see the light
It's time for me to have a good time
And it's time for me to see the light
It's time for me to say you good bye

All my feelings run away
Leaving mind to be insane
As the words deceive the lovers
So it's time for me to show her
That I got to keep me rollin' away from here
As the words deceive the lovers
So it's time for me to show her
That I got to keep me rollin' away from here

That I got to keep me rollin' away from here
That I got to keep me rollin' away from here.
