I'm sitting and watching as the world goes by,
Unhappily thinking that soon we're all going to die.
Surely there's something we still can do, I know a Better place for me and you. As the moment it's nothing
More than fantasy, but if we fight till the end it Might be reality.

C'mon take me by the hand Â- I'll take you to my Dreamland! It's so pretty out there Â- it's hard to Understand! There's no Commies or mudhordes in my Dreamland - it's where patriotism isn't banned! There's No Jews in power in my dreamland - it's where the Control is in the right hands!

I have a dream about this place, where I can live in Harmony with my race. I'm ready to do anything to Achieve a land, where I'd be my own king. We need more
Action - less talking heads, before we find ourselves

Among the deads.

C'mon take me by the hand Â- I'll take you to my Dreamland! It's so pretty out there Â- it's hard to Understand! There's no Commies or mudhordes in my Dreamland - it's where patriotism isn't banned! There's
No Jews in power in my dreamland - it's where the
Control is in the right hands!

There's no Commies or mudhordes in my dreamland - it's Where patriotism isn't banned! There's no Jews in power
In my dreamland - it's where the control is in the Right hands! There's no Commies or mudhordes in my Dreamland - it's where patriotism isn't banned! There's
No Jews in power in my dreamland - it's where the Control is in the right hands, allright!
