Lost on a trail, with no destiny-Forgotten our original Ideology! Generations were born-Born and died! True Intentions have been misplaced through time!

Turn your back, close your eyes-Don't care to see as the World dies! There is now, a multicultural ideology as Once said, by a White man's prophecy!

Another land falls on it's knees with last strength your Hatred breeds! Another world falls on it's knees! Begin
The battle... Raise your swords and shields! Begin the Battle... Raise your swords and shields!

Our Race is, a dying breed to be destroyed by ignorance
And greed! Open up your mind before it's too late!
Unlock
The chains of a conflict we create!

Another land falls on it's knees with last strength your
Hatred breeds! Another world falls on it's knees! Begin
The battle... Raise your swords and shields! Begin the Battle... Raise your swords and shields!
