Your father is a v.i.p.
He thinks he's always right
Your mother watches her t.v.
Won't talk to you all night

Couldn't help sitting up so high
He's gotta find love
He's never seen a flower tree
Or anything that close

And everyday i'll pass and say
Hey!

How is the air up there
How is the air up there
How is the air up there
According to you i just don't care
I'm falling on the ground

First time that you saw me
Said you'd hope i would change
Well, your friends took one look at me
And they sure acted strange

Haven't seen you in a month
And you wonder what it's all about
Well, next time i'm in prison, love
Come and, well bail me out

And everyday i'll pass and say
Hey!

How is the air up there
How is the air up there
How is the air up there
According to you i just don't care
I'm falling on the ground

You tried to put the blame on me
You've got a lot of nerve
You say you're so lonely, well
It's all that you deserve

When you get tired of your Love of life in high society
Well, get some kicks and take a trip
And come on down with me

And everyday i'll pass and say
Hey!

How is the air up there
How is the air up there
How is the air up there
According to you i just don't care I'm falling on the ground How is the air up there...
