I'm feeling kind of strange, with the one that has my Heart
Cause I know she'll run away, and I know that I'll fall
Apart, again
I just keep telling myself I'm the one to blame, I just Keep telling myself I'm the one
Why do I not feel the same, as her, why don't I just take
The blame

Not a damn thing I could write, to keep her on my side,
Looking back and forth again
I don't know where she rides, open up my heart again, so
She can crawl back inside, I don't think so
I just keep telling myself I'm the one to blame, I just Keep telling myself I'm the one
Why do I not feel the same, as her, why don't I just take
The blame
I'm alright, I lied, she lied, we lied, we lied
Same old feeling, crawling back again
The case is so big, so big against me, you'll never Nothing, no you'll never find me
The case is so big, so big against me, you got nothing,
No you'll never find me

Why do I not feel the same, as her, why don't I just take
The blame
I'm alright, I lied, I lied, we lied, we lied
And the ships falling down, and the ships going down, and
The ships going down
I'm alright, I'm alright, we lie, we lie, we lie
