She used to be the girl that you wanted
Her eyes were blue and so were you
But you were only there for the dreaming
Nothing's real in what you feel
You never really had a clue
That it might be too much for you

And now you're running out of pain
You're a dancer in the rain
Remember what I say hmm hmm
That nothing that you do will be good for you
You had it all
But now you took it way too far
You are losing all control
Think of all the hearts you stole hmm hmm
You do it just for fun, tell me when you're done

You see this is part of your life now
Games you play, they fade away
I guess you need to see what you're doing
You're off again and this time I know you when
You want them to believe your lies
You don't know how to make it right

And now you're running out of pain
You're a dancer in the rain
Remember what I say hmm hmm
That nothing that you do will be good for you
You had it all
But now you took it way too far
You are losing all control
Think of all the hearts you stole hmm hmm
You do it just for fun, tell me when you're done
